HUNS WILL DEMAND COMPLETE CONTROL OF AUSTRIAN TROOPS

BLAST WRECKS VIRGINIA MINE

Twenty-nine Men Are Buried Under Thousands of Tons of Debris.

THREE MEN RESCUED

Lightning Ignites Large Amount of Powder Stored in Levels for Blasting Purposes.—Rescuers Hope to Find More Miners Alive.

Virginia, Minn., June 28.—Three of the 29 miners buried under thousands of tons of earth and ore in the Silver mine of the R. D. Hanna company, have been taken out unconscious following an explosion and cave-in. The body of another has been recovered. The miners were caught in the great cave-in in the open pit workings when a bolt of lightning exploded 30 tons of dynamite and black powder at the mine.

Five Others Still Alive.

Communication has been established with five of the men buried. It is believed others will be found alive far back under the side of the mine where the exit has been cut off, the shelling edge saving their lives.

Steam shovels and men to the limit of efficiency were put to work on the caved ground and air pipes were forced downward. Three men were rescued and the air pipe afforded a means of communicating with five others who reported themselves cooped up in a tiny space, short of air and all suffering from injuries.

Powder Was Waiting Blasting.

Three levels of the property were caved in by the explosion, the many tons of powder wrecking the timbers and shaking out supports, allowing the thousands of tons to drop to the bottom of the open pit mine. Among the men caught were outside workers who had entered the third level to escape a hard rain storm.

The powder had been stored in the levels in readiness for a big blast next Sunday, but the electric wires used in setting off the blasts had not been connected, the lightning evidently jumping from the end of the wires to the powder.

Most of the men killed are Austrians and Finns.

RUSSIA IN SORRY PLIGHT

Former Premier Kerensky Says People Oppose German Peace.

London, June 28.—"I bear witness that the Russian people will never recognize the Brest-Litovsk treaty, which hurled Russia into the abyss of annihilation," said Alexander P. Kerensky, former premier of Russia, in an address at the labor conference.

M. Kerensky said Russia was bending under German insults and bleeding at every pore, but still opposed the enemy invasion.

An important assemblage of Russian diplomats will meet M. Kerensky in Paris.

A. P. Iswolsky, the former Russian minister, and now head of the League of Russians Faithful to Their Country and Her Allies, which has been organized in Paris, and the ambassadors of the Kerensky administration at Paris, Rome and Madrid will attend the conference.

War Department at Washington Gains Information that German Offensive is to be Resumed in Short Time

Hindenburg's Delay is Giving the Allies the Opportunity to Build Up their Lines and for America to Aid the Allies

Why Germans Delay New Offensive

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS, (Staff Correspondent, United Press)

With the British Afeld, June 28—Hindenburg's delay in resuming the offensive is mystifying the allied leaders, but not causing worry, as our ability to stop the drive increases proportionately to the delay. Astonishing rumors, accounting for the delay, are in circulation. One is that a strange new disease is devastating the Germans. Apparently the only foundation is the harmless gripe. Another is that dissatisfaction is rampant in the German armies. Apparently the Germans are beginning to realize that their battle plans are less God-inspired than they were told, but they still obey summons. Another blames the weather and the ground. This is good, however. The real reason probably is that Hindenburg realizes that he will never have more men than now while the allied forces are increasing, hence he is carefully calculating the possible man power cost before making a move.

Official Announcement of Czar's Death to be Made

(By United Press)

London, June 28.—The first announcement of the approaching official confirmation of Nicholas Romanoff's death has been received. The Frankfurter Zeitung says that Foreign Minister Tschetchnin wired from Moscow to the Russian minister at Darmstadt, Germany, that Nicholas had been killed.

Amsterdam, June 28.—Wolff agency says it learns from Russia that the former Czar was murdered in a train in which he was leaving Ekatenburg. The same agency reports the Grand Duke Alexis dead.

Between 11 and 12 Hundred Killed

BY LOWELL MALLETT (Staff Correspondent, United Press)

With the Americans on the Marne, June 28.—The total Germans killed in Belleau Wood is between 1100 and 1200. This is a disproportionate number on account of the barrage preventing the Germans from retreating. They stood and took our machine gun, rifle fire and bayonetting.

Kerensky Won't Return to Politics

(By United Press)

London, June 28.—Alexander Kerensky said in an interview that he won't return to politics but will attempt to spread among the allies lessons learned in the Russian situation, and will appeal to them for arms and supplies and other aid.

Bolshevik Overthrown Petrograd Papers Say

(By United Press)

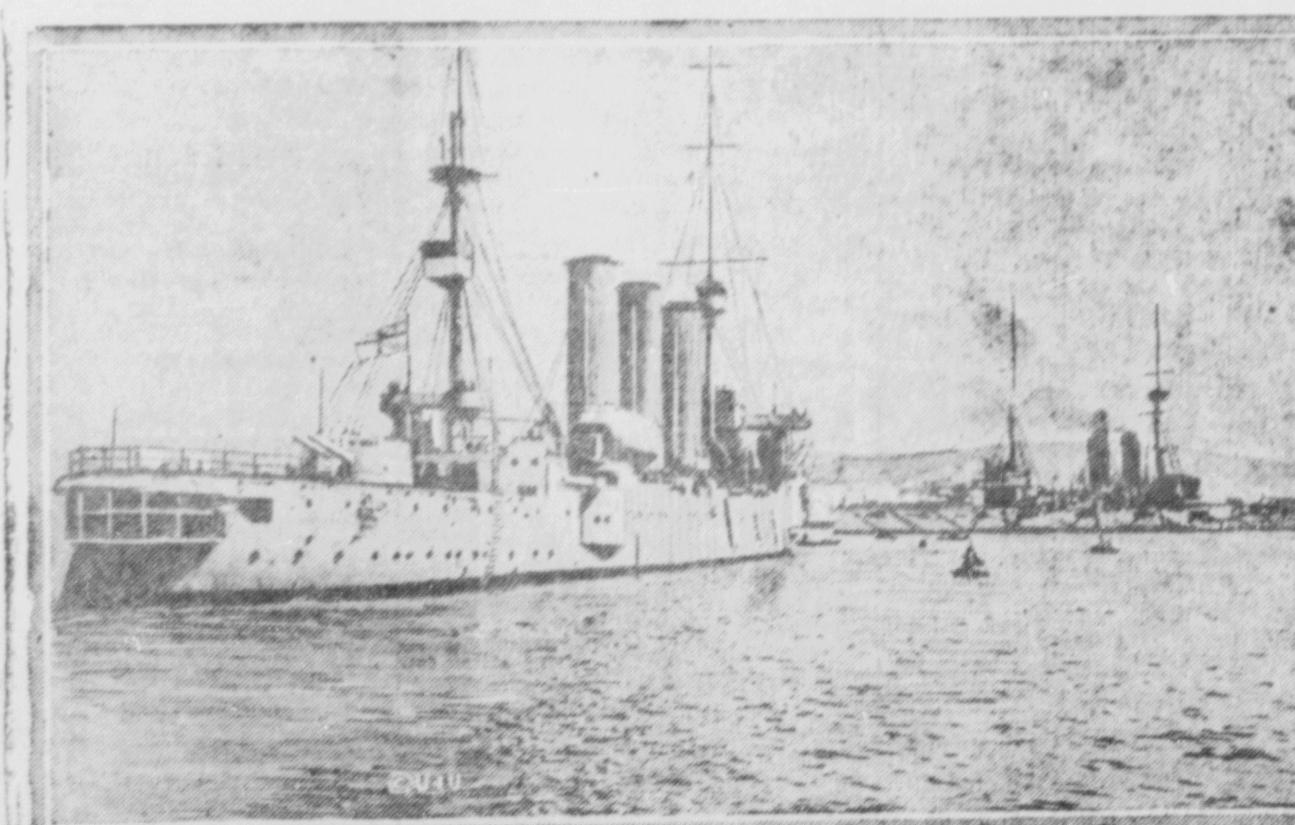

Stockholm, June 28.—St. Petersburg papers publish a report that the Bolsheviks have been overthrown. That Generals Keledine, Korniloff and the Germans have occupied Moscow and that Premier Lennine and Minister Trosky have fled to Murman and that Nicholas Inkolavitch has been made emperor. The German military authorities in Finland lack confirmation, and the rumors are received with the greatest reserve.

Dvinsk Survivors Landed at Halifax

(By United Press)

Halifax, June 28.—24 additional survivors of the British transport Dvinsk sunk recently near Bermuda by a German submarine, were landed by the schooner James Marshal. They were all British and the schooner rescued them after they were in life boats eight days with insufficient food.

William H. Hughes, the Australian premier upon the conclusion of the imperial conference in London will come to the United States to place before President Wilson a full and frank statement of Australia's policy regarding a Monroe Doctrine for the Pacific, according to the Liverpool Post. He will ask for the support and cooperation of the United States in maintaining such a policy. Premier Hughes will explain, says the Post, that the position of Australia is one such as is essential to its territorial integrity and that it should control the islands of the southern and western Pacific, or that they should be in the hands of friendly "civilized nations."

Sunk Submarine Mother Ship Derelict

(By United Press)

Atlantic Port, June 28.—Captain Holmes, of the Belgian relief ship Gothland, just arrived, reported it had sunk the derelict of a mother boat to submarines one hundred and twenty miles south of Iceland.

CAN NEVER DOMINATE AIR

Prominent Briton Says Germans Will Not Win War.

Kansas City, June 28.—As long as Britain and America stand the Boche can never dominate the air. This was the statement of Andrew Home-Morton, president of the British Association of Rotary clubs, before the International Rotary convention here.

"If the Hun planes bombard London for the next hundred years, the British nerve will not be shaken," he declared.

NEW PLAN FOR PROHIBITION

Washington, June 28.—The Senate agricultural committee has agreed upon an amendment to the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill providing for national prohibition.

Fear Miners are Dead

FIRST DISTRICT FIGHT IN DOUBT

John M. Baer Is Leading Henry G. Vick in Congressional Contest.

STEEN ADMITS DEFEAT

Supporters of Nonpartisan League Candidates Claim Their Entire Ticket With Possible Exception of Railway Commissioner.

Fargo, N. D., June 28.—Interest in primary election returns has switched to the congressional fights as the nomination of Governor L. J. Frazier, Nonpartisan league candidate, over John Steen, independent, is assured.

In the First district the outcome of the battle between Congressman John M. Baer, Nonpartisan league candidate, and Henry G. Vick, independent, for the Republican nomination still is in doubt, the latest reports giving Baer a majority of 212 with 12 of the 13 counties reporting.

In the Third district 19 counties gave J. H. Sinclair, Nonpartisan, 13,691 votes against 12,598 for P. B. Norton.

A report from Bismarck claimed that in 19 southwestern counties the Nonpartisan ticket received majorities, and supporters of the league here claimed that the entire ticket with the possible exception of railroad commissioner was nominated.

No figures are available on the Democratic contest.

Steen conceded the nomination of Frazier.

Incomplete returns from the Second Congressional district for the Republican nomination give George M. Young, Nonpartisan, a majority of approximately 10,000 over C. O. Hanchett.

It became known that the committee on public information, through which the speech will be given out, was under consideration plans to furnish it in advance to postmasters, through whom it would be transmitted to four-minute speakers or others in charge of the Fourth of July exercises in various cities and towns.

"Cheating The Public"

THIS is the day of the young man in business.

Thousands of men, still young, are just now beginning to reap the rewards of their patient effort; thousands more are in the midst of the struggle which is trying their mettle and determining their right to survive; other thousands are preparing themselves with experience and capital to strike out for themselves.

The young man who makes friends with a good bank creates a business ally that will help him at every turn.

It will help him in the days when he is accumulating, step by step, his little "capital."

It will help him in the days when he needs credit to reinforce his capital. It will give him the commercial counsel so necessary as a counterbalance to his enthusiasm.

And it will help him when, his battle won,
he looks forward to still greater achievement.

business of young men.

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will,
the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

Your store news in the Dispatch will be read in practically every home in Brainerd and vicinity every evening.

Requiescat in Pace.

The spirit of selfishness wrapped its constricting coils about his heart.
The coils, steadily tightening, pressed one by one, the drops of human dissension from his soul. Hardened, malevo-lent, a mere caricature of a man, he lived on and on. He died unmourned.
Selfishness is a serpent—sinuous, insinuating.
Along the paths of all men it creeps. Those that look to the ground to avoid the dirty things of life, shun it. Those who, careless of life's dangers, wake up to find it in their bosom, strangle it—if it be not too late.
With the rest, its slimy coils become a comfort, a thing to worship. And they live their living death shunned and ostracized. They die unmourned

A BARGAIN on BAY LAKE

Here is an opportunity to secure a tract on one of the most beautiful lakes in the state of Minnesota. Land on this lake is rarely on the market and then at prohibitive prices. How would you like to possess 38 acres with one-quarter mile of wide, smooth beach, shaded with birch and maple; half a mile from Bay Lake postoffice by auto road and one-quarter mile by boat? Auto road right to door from Brainerd, Deerwood, Mille Lacs and Bay Lake. Best of soil, no rocks; ten acres cleared; building and pump. In direct line of survey for new Soo railroad. Strong mineral attraction. Could easily be cut into half acre tracts.

The canoeist will find Bay Lake can offer him 30 miles of lake shore studded with wooded bays and nooks. The fisherman and duck hunter will find this an ideal spot. I need the money at once and I am selling for a fraction of what I should get. Fifty dollars per acre takes it. One hundred dollars up is the going price. Call or write James Brownlee, Deerwood, Minn., and then take an auto and see this gem for yourself. Land description, Lot 4, Sec. 10, Town 45, Rge. 10.

ENTERTAINS AT MERRIFIELD

Mrs. J. P. Anderson Hostess to First Congregational Ladies' Aid

The happy idea of Mrs. J. P. Anderson to entertain the Ladies' Aid of the First Congregational church at her summer home at Merrifield, was rewarded with an exceptionally large attendance. About 100 men and women gathered and spent the afternoon fishing, bathing and in general good sociability.

Supper was served at 6 o'clock and a splendid sum of money was received for the treasury. The president and her officers are to be congratulated on their splendid work.

Postponed Meeting

The business meeting which was to be held Thursday evening to elect a successor to fill the unexpired term of the late N. H. Ingersoll as trustee of the First Congregational church, was postponed until Sunday morning after the service of worship.

Neal-Bolles

Rev. DeForest B. Bolles, well known in Brainerd, was married on Thursday to Miss C. E. Neal formerly of Brainerd and now of Deerwood, the ceremony taking place in Minneapolis. Rev. Bolles graduated May 21 from the Seabury Episcopal divinity school at Faribault. He has been assigned a pastorate at La Junta and Las Scimas, Col., near Fort Lyon and the navy hospital.

Rev. Bolles was employed two and a half years as a machinist in Brainerd and his rendition of Swedish dialect sermons gained him the nickname of "Rev." Later he attended divinity school and then rightfully acquired the title.

His friends are assured he will make an ideal minister, one close to the people and strong in uplift work. The best wishes of the Dispatch are extended Rev. and Mrs. Bolles.

Must Have Same Faith.

An appreciation of beauty, of the adaptation of design to a purpose, may help us to believe in a wisdom, in a plan far beyond our ability to know or understand. A contemplation of the natural world will strengthen faith; make hope more buoyant. Everyone must have some faith if living surely. Nothing created is without its purpose. As long as we see the design fulfilling its purpose in some things, we may believe that all is working to its appointed end, though we know not what that end is.

Bad Kidneys Laid Him Up

A slight kidney impairment may lead to dropsy or Bright's disease. Don't neglect it. Frank Miller, Bingham, Utah, writes: "Was troubled with my kidneys so bad I could not work. Tried many kinds of medicine which did me no good. Then I tried Foley Kidney Pills; now feeling as good as I ever did before." H. P. Dunn, druggist.

THINKS BERLIN WEAKENING

Serbian Minister Comments on Von Kuehmann's Speech.

Washington, June 28.—M. L. Michalovitch, the Serbian minister, in a statement, declared that the address before the German reichstag this week by Dr. von Kuehmann, minister for foreign affairs, betrays for the first time the fact that Germany no longer believes in victory by force of arms and consequently tried to obtain it by other means.

For this reason, he said, the nations fighting the Central Powers should have greater faith than ever in their final victory by force.

Insurance Men Essential.

Washington, June 28.—Insurance men will be interested in information obtained from Provost Marshal General Crowder. There has been considerable curiosity to know how insurance men were classed under General Crowder's "work or fight" order and whether their occupations were regarded as essential. General Crowder told Congressman Knutson that he had made no ruling on this class, but if called upon to do so, he would rule that the occupation of insurance man was "essential."

WAR WORKERS ARE BEING SATISFIED

ONE PART OF GOVERNMENT'S PROGRAM THAT IS BEING WELL CARRIED OUT.

STRIKES MUST BE AVERTED

Secretary Lane Urges American People to See the Grand Canyon of the Colorado River—Senator Gallinger's Defense of Filibusters.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—One part of the war program is being carried out, which is to satisfy labor that is engaged upon war work. This means nearly all kinds of labor, because strikes on railroads, trolley lines, street car systems, or in any other line, are likely to have their effect upon those industries which must proceed without interruption if the war is to be carried on successfully. The increase of the wages of railroad workmen was for the purpose of keeping them satisfied and at work, because transportation is one of the most essential necessities for the war. This was followed by an increase in freight rates and passenger fares, but those who pay this increase must know that it is a war necessity.

We had come on some rising ground, and as we climbed we reached the brow of the slope, and of a sudden it seemed that some giant had suddenly twisted the old world under our feet and we were back home, for of a sudden the sounds of life came up to us out of a hustling center of industry. That satisfying chug of an honest hammer head sinking willing nail into sound wood, and before us was a panorama of new building, with piles of clean lumber stacked here and there, and the framing of many new buildings told where the wood was going. Then we heard the voice of a man who talked real "United States"—telling 27 other carpenters what to do out in this foreign land thousands of miles from home.

We inquired of the boss as to who he was, and with true sense of humor he said: "I am a Red Cross nurse. My job is bandaging wounded houses."

Putting Villages Back on Map.

"This was once a French village," he went on to say, "in the center of fine sugar beet country. We are living now on the site of the sugar mill," he said, pointing to a long, low barracks, which plainly had been recently built. "We are working for the American Red Cross—putting villages back on the map. In four more weeks we'll be out of here and on our way to the next ruin, for there are many villages that need us. We go from place to place, always finding that our lumber has reached there first, so we can get right to work, clean up and move on again."

It is just like pioneering, this rebuilding work of our Red Cross—only more important—more important because it is vital to the winning of the war that these people come back to their soil and plant new crops—for future years of war or peace.

And so the tide of war sweeps back from whence it came, a Red Cross army follows close behind in uniforms of overalls, armed with Yankee hammers and nails to coax back the foundations that have been brushed into squallid helplessness in the south and east.

They are coming back home now, just a few days behind these carpenters—back to the beet fields, the gardens and the farms. Soon they will be feeding themselves and thousands of others.

WHITE PLAGUE KILLS MORE MEN THAN BULLETS

It seems longer, but it was less than four years ago that the nations had not yet started in to wipe each other off the map and that the only times when one heard of the Red Cross were times of flood or disaster and at Christmas time, when the peaceful little Red Cross tuberculosis seals made their annual appearance.

Perhaps, in fact, it was the long, ardent fight in America against the White Plague which, in spite of the war's enormous new demands, is responsible for the especial interest being taken by the American Red Cross in France's frightful struggle against consumption.

This scourge seems to mark the trench fighter for its own. It kills more men than do bullets and poison gas combined. Until the American Red Cross was permitted by the French government to start its drive against tuberculosis it looked as if, even with a victory over the Hun, France might eventually be conquered by this deadlier foe.

Already things are looking brighter. The Red Cross has taken over old hospitals and built new ones. More than 300 tuberculosis dispensaries are to be opened throughout the country, and Red Cross doctors and nurses—scores of them—are devoting themselves exclusively to this fight, doing over there exactly the same kind of work which is financed in America by the little Christmas seals. It is one of the ways in which by our contributions to the Red Cross America can repay her debt to France.

OLD BUGGY NOT SO BAD

One Man at Least Thinks Automobile is Not Such a Very Great Improvement.

Speaking of old-fashioned things, a newspaper writer wants to know what has become of the gallant youth who, when he had stopped the horse, would let down the top of the buggy in order to permit his sweetheart to alight without so much as touching a wheel or the body.—Columbus (O.) Dispatch.

When Exempt From Duty.

Section 59 of the army law now in force reads: "The vice president of the United States, the officers, judicial and executive, of the government of the United States and of the several states and territories; persons in the military or naval service of the United States; customs house clerks; persons employed by the United States in the transmission of the mail; artificers and workmen employed in the armories, arsenals and navy yards of the United States; pilots; marines actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States shall be exempt from militia duty without regard to age; and all persons who, because of religious belief, shall claim exemption from military service, if the conscientious holding of such belief by such person shall be established under such regulations as the president shall prescribe, shall be exempted from militia service."

But speaking of buggy riding, the automobile is no improvement over it in the matter of real enjoyment. Not until the automobile is perfected so it can be driven with one hand, or until it will wander along the road without driving at all, will it come in the class of bliss which the buggy occupied in the days gone by.

The girls are as sweet as they used to be—and the roads much better. The moonlight is just as mellow. Love flows in the same uncharted channel. Youth is as hopeful—and as boastful. Mothers are as anxious, fathers as impatient, when daughter fails to return when she was expected. Gossip is as busy. But the wise old horse that knew when there was a loving couple in the buggy, and the narrow buggy itself, have all but taken their departure along with the gallant fellow who hopped from the rig and gracefully and graciously lowered the top of the vehicle so his companion could alight without so much as touching a wheel or the body.—Columbus (O.) Dispatch.

ice in a combatant capacity; but no person so exempted shall be exempt from militia service in any capacity that the president shall declare to be noncombatant."

Of Course.

A young author said to William Dean Howells at a reception in the latter's honor in Miami:

"That was Astor who just asked you for your autograph, sir. You don't seem much impressed."

"I can never understand," said Mr. Howells, "why people should be impressed by millionaires. My own experience has been that whenever you lunch with them they always let you pay."

The young author laughed gaily.

"That, of course, is how they become millionaires, isn't it?" he said.

Up in the Air.

Corporal (name deleted by censor) is the champion optimist in the (deleted by censor) regiment. On his first visit to Paris an air raid was in progress, and as he observed the Parisians, all intent on the Taubes, he said to his companion:

"There's one fine thing about this air stuff."

"And that is—?"

"It keeps you looking up."

BOYS TO THE CAMP

Brainerd and Crow Wing county bid farewell and God speed to the quota of 73 bound for the training camp at Camp Grant, Ill., first stage on their way to France and then on to Berlin.

Every contingent sent increases the determination of the district to whip the hun and whip him good.

Uncle Sam today is just pouring men, money, munitions, food and ships to France in an ever-increasing stream. It was the men of America who assisted in the nick of time to stay the Hindenburg offensive and in a few days more Americans will be in Italy to encourage our ally there. Uncle Sam is in this fight to win and to aid in making this world a decent place to live in and free from any German domination. America as well as the many smaller nations, wishes to work out its destiny without any hun orders.

Crow Wing county lads, as well as the boys of Cass, Beltrami and Aitkin, who accompanied them, will be depended upon to do their share to break up the hun military machine and scatter the pieces to the four winds.

Farewell and God speed to you boys and remember the folks at home will never forget you and are planning even now for the big homecoming next year when the war is expected to be over.

SERMONS IN GERMAN

Preaching in the German language in Minnesota during the present war is discouraged in a letter addressed to Rev. C. C. Stettbacher, an evangelical pastor living near La Crescent, from the office of Attorney General Clifford L. Hilton.

The minister asked for an opinion after a school director objected to German sermons being preached at religious services in a school house in Winona county. Attorney General Hilton wrote in part:

"When a nation is at war its patriotic citizens are quick to resent anything which might be taken as an attempt to belittle the nation and an address in the German tongue, irrespective of the subject matter, may easily become offensive to citizens. It is apt to provoke a breach of the peace, a riot or a disturbance."

"It ought not to be necessary to have a law expressly forbidding the speaking of the German language," the opinion continues. "Good sense and a proper consideration for the feelings of others, if nothing more, suggests that persons speaking it in public—especially pastors in addressing their flocks, employ the English language. A speaker doing otherwise will be held responsible for consequences which follow and which he knows will follow, and he may be deemed guilty of provoking a breach of the peace in a public place."

COMMUNITY WORK

No finer example of community work can be given than the successful dinner served the soldiers at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning and farewell demonstration following. Red Cross women and men, Chamber of Commerce, Grand Army men, shop boys, drum corps of farmers and drum corps of machinists, Brainerd City band and the Wortham carnival band, the Witham orchestra, Brainerd citizens, range citizens, everybody helped to make dinner and farewell reception an inspiring and successful one.

Every one taking part is to be complimented.

WORK OR FIGHT

By July 1 it is expected orders will be promulgated and enforced doing away with any unproductive labor, and such men will have to work at productive trades or enlist.

"Work or fight" will be the order of the day. The government, even now, is sorely handicapped for labor in many branches and must have the men if it has to commandeer them from private life.

The government any day is greater than any one man or set of men and when the order comes to march, work or fight, every loyal citizen swings into line.

RAINS AID CROPS

Rains Wednesday and Thursday, although not heavy, did much to benefit Crow Wing county crops and to further assure bumper harvests in oats, potatoes, corn, rye, barley, wheat etc.

When one sees the stand of crops in this and adjoining counties one may realize that soon the cry for labor to harvest will exceed in importance any other cry for men.

Near Fort Ripley a farmer has 400 acres under cultivation. On many farms the girls are doing their share, assisted by father and the old hired man.

FARMERS WERE THERE

P. M. Zakariassen, leading spirit in the repairing of Oak street, says the farmers should be given full credit for their willing assistance in patching up Oak street, one of the main thoroughfares of the city. They were on hand with their teams as they had promised, but some of the city shovels failed to show up and some idle teams was the result.

City and countryside are working together and the road bee of Wednesday on Oak street is marked proof that farmers and business men agree on the question of good roads.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 28.—Colonel Roosevelt will speak at the New York state republican meeting at Saratoga on July 18, he announced following a dinner in Manhattan with Will H. Hayes, republican national chairman. Colonel Roosevelt said:

"Mr. Taft and I will speak at the meeting of the New York senators at Saratoga on July 18, it of course being understood that the meeting has nothing to do with any contest for any candidate for any position. My speech will be an appeal to the patriotism of the country to speed up war work."

"I am sure Mr. Taft's speech and mine will be along the same general lines."
